Internationally Renowned Faculty

Carlos F. Concepción, FCI Arb: Mr. Concepción chairs the Global Arbitration Practice Group of Shook, Hardy & Bacon L.L.P. from the firm's Miami office. He has served as counsel in a wide range of domestic and international litigation and arbitration matters concentrating his practice in the areas of financial services, design and construction, telecommunications and transnational disputes involving parties from multiple jurisdictions. He possesses substantial experience with multilingual and multicultural teams, which provides a strategic advantage in dealing with parties and evidence from different legal systems, especially in Latin America and the Caribbean. Mr. Concepción is a member of numerous organizations, including the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (CPR), the International Bar Association (IBA), the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel and the International Center for Dispute Resolution. He also is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb), and a frequent speaker to professional organizations around the world.

Introduction to International Arbitration

This one-day Introduction class is designed for young practitioners or LLM degree students wishing to learn the fundamentals of international commercial arbitration. The course introduces concepts and principles of international commercial arbitration practice and is sufficient to qualify for the level of Associate of the CI Arb, which entitles individuals to use the ACI Arb credential after their names.

The program provides unrivalled training in international arbitration, both for those who wish to assist counsel representing clients in international arbitration proceedings and for those who aspire to eventual appointments as arbitrators. Topics to be covered include:

- Comparison of dispute resolution alternatives
- Why arbitration
- The law of international arbitration: legal systems and rules
- The Seat, and why it's important
- The arbitration agreement and importance of its scope
- How a tribunal is empaneled (including challenges and replacements)
- Powers of an arbitrator
- Organizing the proceedings
- Types of awards

Timing and Scheduling

The program will commence at 8:30 a.m. Sunday morning, April 28, 2019 and will conclude at 5:00 PM that same day. Additionally, all participants will be required to submit written answers to questions within a stated period of time following the program.

We are anticipating strong demand for this program and would ask that you register at the earliest possible date. Space is limited and will be allocated on a first come/first served basis.

Continuing Legal Education (CLE)

Application for CLE credits is being made for Florida and other states. Forms for filing in other states will be provided.
